Form W-9 Rev. January 2020 <small>Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service</small>	Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification	Give form to the requester. Do not send to the IRS.
Name Business Name, if different from above
Check appropriate box: <input type="checkbox"/> Individual <input type="checkbox"/> Sole Proprietor <input type="checkbox"/> Corporation <input type="checkbox"/> Partnership <input type="checkbox"/> Other <input type="checkbox"/> Exempt from backup withholding
Address (number, street, and apt. or suite no.) City, State, and ZIP code		Requester's name and address (optional) Metropolitan State College of Denver P.O. Box 17360, Campus Box 18 Denver, CO 80217-3602
Social Security Number _____
Employer Identification Number _____
Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3. Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.
Part II Certification Under penalties of perjury, I certify that: 1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and 2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and 3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien). Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 4.)
Signature of U.S. Person _____ Date _____ Purpose of Form A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA. U.S. Person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued). 1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued). 2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or 3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. NOTE: If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9. Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, use the appropriate Form W-9 (see Pub. 315, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Identify any patterns in your errors and target your study sessions in those areas. 3. Here is a list of materials you will need to get you started: #2 Pencils and black or dark blue colored pens. If you're not sure who this person is, ask a guidance counselor or someone in the administration office to identify them. If you're taking AP exams this year, whether you're enrolled in the class or you're self-studying, you won't want to miss out on this important info. Not only are popular SAT and ACT dates nearing, but so are final exams and Advanced Placement (AP) tests. To get started, speak with your school's AP Coordinator no later than March 1. These questions can sometimes seem so open-ended that you aren't sure what to do with them, or how exactly to show your knowledge. If you want to stay one step ahead, you're going to need to plan your testing calendar well in advance. Government or school-issued identification. For some students, this is a simple task, but for others it's a little more involved. How Do Most Students Do on Each AP Exam? Show me what areas I need to improve 2020 AP Exams have been revised to 45-minute online exams due to the coronavirus. Our chancing engine uses your grades, tests scores, extracurriculars, demographics, and other factors to determine which schools might be a great fit for you. See how your profile ranks among thousands of other students using CollegeVine. Instead, you will most likely pay your school or the testing facility, as they have paid for the tests upon ordering them. Be sure to review these for each of your tests as part of your standard test preparations. Also pay extra close attention to the verbs used in these prompts. For more information about free response questions, be sure to check the specific exam page on AP Central where you'll find free response examples from years past. 2. Interested in learning more about the score distribution of each exam? Arrive for Test Day Prepared Make sure that you know ahead of time what you're going to need to bring with you to each of your AP exams. Begin Studying Early Whether you are self-studying or enrolled in the actual AP class, you'll still want to study for the exam as you would any other test. Check out the table below. Still, if your teacher has not mentioned exam registration during the spring semester, you should most definitely confirm with the teacher no later than March 1 that you will be registered for the exam. Luckily, the scoring rubric for free responses is available for each test through AP Central. Your six-digit school code. A ruler or straight-edge If you are taking an AP Physics exam. Your school's AP coordinator will be able to tell you if your desired AP exams will be offered at your school, or will be able to provide you with some direction for locating them elsewhere. For more information about registering for AP exams, including instructions for homeschooled students or students who have scheduling conflicts, see our post How to Register for AP Exams (Even If You Didn't Take the Class). Get to Know the Scoring Rubric for Free Responses One of the most common places to needlessly lose points on the AP is the free response section. That usually depends on if you're registered for the associated AP class at your school. If you're enrolled in an AP class, your teacher will generally discuss testing with you well in advance. Calculate your chances at your dream schools and learn what areas you need to improve right now — it only takes 3 minutes and it's 100% free. If you're not enrolled in an official AP class and you still want to take one or more AP tests, you're going to need to locate a testing location. The fees may vary slightly, since your school or testing facility may be responsible for late fees or for other costs. You should also consider bringing a watch, a snack, and a water bottle. How to Register for AP Exams First of all, before you can take these tests, you're going to need to register for them. These will commonly be words like show, explain, or identify. For example, 10.7% of students got a 5 in AP Research. Be sure that you understand what each of these prompts means, and address each in your answer.
